4.3 Orientation: Ensuring recently elected or appointed officials have the information they need to perform their new duties makes the development review process more predictable.

4.4 Bylaws: Bylaws are required under law for certain boards and commissions. They also provide predictability for board proceeds and therefore the development review experience.

4.6 Training Strategy: Developing a training strategy identifies opportunities and encourages on-going training aligned with the community's goals, needs, and capacity.

5.2 Incentives Policies: Having clear economic development incentive policies creates predictability and assists communities in making the most efficient use of limited local resources when supporting proposed development projects.

5.3 Marketing Plan: Every community has a unique story to tell. A marketing plan coordinates how that story is told to help attract new residents, visitors, businesses, and development.

R. Valentine moved supported by J. Welke to adjourn the meeting at 7:31 p.m. motion carried.
